From Saturday October 9, to Tuesday October 12, 1756.

Dreſden, October 2.

WE received this Day about Noon the News of a Victory the King of Pruſſia has gained over the Auſtrians. The King of Pruſſia was poſted in the Neighbourhood of a Village called Welmina, with an Army of about 35000 Men, and Marſhal Brown was between that Place and Lowoſitz, with his whole Army, amounting, it is ſaid, to near 60000 Men. The Action, which began at Seven o'Clock in the Morning, was obſtinate and bloody; but about Noon, the whole Auſtrian Army retreated, and left the Pruſſians Maſters of the Field of Battle; and, as they went through Lowoſitz, ſet Fire to the Suburbs, to ſtop the Pruſſians in their Purſuit. It is thought the Auſtrians have loſt about 4000 Men, and the Pruſſians half that Number.

Berlin, Oct. 3. This Morning, about Seven o'Clock, an Officer in the Guards, arrived here from the Pruſſian Camp in Bohemia, in 39 Hours; he had no Letters from any Body, but only a ſhort Note to the Queen Mother, wrote by the King himſelf on the Field of Battle, acquainting her Majeſty with his having gained a complete Victory over the Auſtrians, which coſt him 2000 Men. The Particulars that have been collected from the Officer, are, That on the 30th of September, the King of Pruſſia's Army moved from their Camp at Auſſig; that when they came to the Ground they were to occupy that Night, they perceived ſome Tents pitched, which they took to be an advanced Guard, or ſome ſmall Out-Party of Auſtrians; but that his Pruſſian Majeſty had the Precaution to make his Army remain under Arms all Night; and, early in the Morning, the 1ſt of October, obſerved ſome Motions among the Enemy, which very ſoon ſhewed that the whole Auſtrian Army were preparing to attack him. That the King of Pruſſia made the proper Diſpoſitions, according to his Ground; and, about Seven in the Morning, the Auſtrians attacked, with great Fury, the Left Wing of the Pruſſians, and the Action continued very hot, till half an Hour paſt One, when the Auſtrians gave Way, but retired in good Order; and, to cover their Retreat, burnt the Town of Lowoſitz, in which they had a Magazine. The Number of the Auſtrians under Marſhal Brown are ſaid to be about 60000, and the Pruſſian Army from 35 to 40000 only, by Reaſon of ſeveral Detachments left to guard the Paſſes in the Mountains, and on the Elbe. The King had under him, his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Pruſſia, Prince Ferdinand of Brunſwic, and Marſhal Keith, having left his Brothers the Princes Henry and Ferdinand, with many other General Officers, in his Camp at Sedelitz. A diſtinct Relation of the Action is daily expected.

Leghorn, Sept. 27. The 21ſt Inſtant arrived here His Majeſty's Ship the Jerſey, commanded by Sir William Burnaby, and the Iſis, commanded by Captain Wheeler, having been detached by Sir Edward Hawke to take under their Convoy the Ships homeward bound from this Port, and to bring away the Snow St. George, Captain Fortunatus Wright, which had been for ſome Time unjuſtly detained here. The two Men of War abovementioned, accordingly left this Port on the 24th, with the ſaid Snow St. George, and the Trade under their Convoy.

Bruſſels, October 8. The Auſtrian Troops which are to march from the Low Countries into Bohemia, are the German Regiments of Charles Lorrain, Salm-Salm, Platz, Bareith, Colloredo and de Wied, conſiſting each of four Batallions and two Companies of Grenadiers; two two Batallions and the Grenadier Companies of each of the Walloon Regiments of Los Rios and Arberg, and the Companies of Grenadiers belonging to the other two Walloon Regiments of Ligne and Saxe Gotha, beſides the Regiment of Cuiraſſiers of Anhalt Zerbſt, and that of Dragoons of Ligne, each of ſix Squadrons. The whole it is computed will amount to about 16000 Foot, and 2000 Horſe and Dragoons. They are all to receive immediately a Gratification of three Months Pay. This Corps is to be aſſembled at Luxembourg againſt the latter End of this Month. The Infantry is to be commanded by four Majors General, viz. Count d'Arberg, M. Hanger, the Prince of Stolberg, and the Duke d'Urſel; Major General Count d'Argenteau commands the Cavalry. Their High Mightineſſes have ordered back into their Dominions five Batallions of the Troops which they have at Tournay, Menin, Ypres, Furnes and Knocke. We are now poſitively informed that the Troops which the French are ſending to the Aſſiſtance of the Empreſs Queen, are to be aſſembled at Pfaltzbourg on the 17th Inſtant, under the Command of the Prince of Soubize.

College of Phyſicians, London, October 5, 1756.

We the Cenſors of the College, being informed that very large Quantities of a Bark imported from North America, have been lately ſold by publick Sale at Garraway's Coffee Houſe as Jeſuits Bark, have procured Samples of it, and, calling to us the Maſter and Wardens of the Apothecaries Company, have examined it, and find, that though it has the Appearance, it has not the Taſte or Qualities of the true Jeſuits or Peruvian Bark: We the Cenſors therefore, that we may not be wanting in an Affair of ſuch Conſequence to the Health and Lives of His Majeſty's Subjects, think it our Duty to give this publick Notice to all Apothecaries, and other publick Diſpenſers of Medicines, deſiring them not to purchaſe any Peruvian Bark without taſting and carefully examining it.
